TOGETHER

Travel planning is broken.

Fifty browser tabs. A half-finished Google Doc. Screenshots in your camera roll. Confirmation emails in three inboxes. A group chat nobody updates. And somewhere around day three, you give up.

Meet dani.

dani isn't a chat panel bolted onto a travel app.
dani is the app. Your travel concierge. You plan your trip by talking to her.

DISCOVER

Just tell dani what you want.

"A week in Japan, first time, love food and temples, mid-budget. Flying from Seoul."

In seconds, dani builds the whole trip — cities, days, real places, real photos, pacing that makes sense.

You don't start with a blank page. You start with a trip.

PLATE

Dani finds your flights and books them.

"An afternoon flight from Seoul to Tokyo under $400."

Dani searches live data from real airlines, shows you real options at real prices, and adds the one you pick to your trip — airline, times, layovers, booking reference, all filled in.

No switching apps. No re-typing.

PLATE

Dani understands your trip.

“Make the Kyoto stay five nights.”

Dani looks at your timeline, finds when you arrive in Kyoto, and computes check-in and check-out — all on her own.

“Move dinner to 8. Remove the museum. Push the whole trip a week.”

You edit your whole trip by talking. Dani knows the context before she acts.

Dani finds anything.

TRANSPORT

Flights, hotels, trains, buses, ferries, cruises, cars

FOOD

Restaurants with real ratings and reviews

ATTRACTIONS

Museums, shrines, temples, landmarks

PHOTOGRAPHY

The best photo spots worldwide

LIVE EVENTS

Concerts, sports, theater for your dates

POKÉMON

Every Pokémon manhole cover across Japan

Drop in what you already have.

Drag confirmation emails, PDF itineraries, and booking screenshots straight into dani.go.

Dani reads each one and turns it into a real event on your timeline — with a confirmation step before anything lands.

Every email you already have is a head start.

PLATE

100+ trips, ready to clone.

Explore — a library of hand-crafted trips built by our team. Real places, real photos, real pacing. Free to browse, free to clone.

Including trips you won't find anywhere else, like our Poké Lid collector trails.

PLATE

It's yours the moment you tap.

Change the dates. Swap the hotels. Delete what you don't want. Add what you do.

All editable by hand — or, of course, by asking dani. The original template stays untouched for the next traveler.

PLATE

A trip that looks like a travel magazine.

Big photo cards. Real pictures of every place. Name, time, rating, category — all at a glance.

Your trip looks like something you'd want to look at. Not a spreadsheet.

PLATE

screenshots/06_timeline_day_view.png

Day by day, or week at a glance.

Day view on your phone — scroll through your trip the way you'll live it.

Week view on your laptop — see the whole shape at once. Drag events between days to rebalance, or ask dani.

Same trip. Two ways of seeing it.

Every way of getting there.

Flights. Hotels. Trains. Buses. Ferries. Cruises. Rental cars.

Each with its own rich card, the right time zones, and the details you need on the day.

One timeline. No bouncing between ten apps.

PLATE

Planning with people, not around them.

Most trips happen with other people — partners, families, friends. dani.go is built for that from the ground up. Share a trip with anyone coming along, and every change stays in sync across everyone's devices in real time.

ACTIVITY LOG

Invite by email. Decide who can do what.

OWNER	You. Full control.
ADMIN	Can edit and invite others
PLANNER	Can edit the trip
VIEWER	Read-only — for parents and friends

Invites are locked to the email. Only that person can accept.

PLATE

A screenshot of an invite dialog box, showing a path to the image file: screenshots/11_invite_dialog.png. The dialog box is mostly empty, with a small red square in the top right corner.

Everyone sees the same trip, live.

Your partner moves dinner from 7 to 8 on their phone.

You see it instantly on yours. Your friends see it on theirs. See who's looking at the trip, right now.

Up to 10 people per trip.

No refresh. No conflicts. No "send me the latest version."

PLATE

Group chat, polls, reactions.

- CHAT A group chat panel right inside the trip
- POLLS Vote on hotels, restaurants, cities
- REACT  on any event card

The fastest way to plan with people without spawning a group chat on a different app.

PLATE

Capture memories as they happen.

Write a memory with a title, your notes, the date, and as many photos as you want.

Attach it to a specific event — “dinner at that little place in Gion” — or just to a day.

 Locked on your device. Only you can read them. Not even we can.

PLATE

screenshots/16_memory_edit.png

Memories live inside your trip.

Every memory appears right next to the event it belongs to.

Rereading your itinerary later is like rereading your own travel journal — because it is.

PLATE

screenshots/17_memory_on_timeline.png

Turn your trip into a printed book.

When the trip is over, turn it into something you can hold.

■ DESIGNS

Thirteen beautiful book templates

■ MAPS

Daily maps built in automatically

■ STORIES

Your photos, notes, and memories woven through

A real book. Not a screenshot dump.

PLATE

Make dani.go yours.

Switch between built-in looks — each one a complete makeover of the app's colors, fonts, and feel.

Open the visual editor and build your own, with live preview across the whole app as you tweak.
